

PACT ProSCAPE Cookie Policy

Effective Date: August 18, 2026

Last Updated: August 18, 2026

This Cookie Policy explains how HummingBird Technosys, Inc. ("HummingBird," "we," "us," or "our") uses cookies and similar technologies on the PACT ProSCAPE website.

This Cookie Policy should be read together with our Privacy Policy.

1. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small data files that websites store on, or access through, a visitor's browser or device.

Cookies and related technologies can enable websites to:

- operate correctly;
- maintain security;
- remember preferences;
- maintain sessions;
- understand how visitors interact with the website;
- diagnose errors;
- improve website performance; and
- support analytics and marketing where applicable.

Cookies may be:

Session Cookies - generally expire when the browser is closed.

Persistent Cookies - remain for a defined period or until deleted.

Cookies may also be:

First-Party Cookies - placed by PACT ProSCAPE or by services operating on behalf of the website.

Third-Party Cookies - placed by another organization whose technology or service is integrated into the website.

2. Categories of Cookies We May Use

Strictly Necessary Cookies

These cookies are required for operation, security, and core functionality of the website.

They may support:

- cybersecurity;
- fraud and abuse prevention;
- network management;
- load balancing;
- session management;

- form functionality;
- privacy and consent preferences; and
- functionality explicitly requested by the visitor.

Where permitted by applicable law, strictly necessary cookies may be used without prior consent because the applicable functionality cannot reasonably be provided without them.

Functional Cookies

Functional cookies may enable the website to remember choices and provide enhanced functionality.

Examples may include:

- language preferences;
- regional preferences;
- display settings;
- remembered preferences; and
- other visitor-selected settings.

Where required by applicable law, these cookies will be activated only after appropriate consent.

Analytics and Performance Cookies

Analytics technologies may help us understand how visitors use the PACT ProSCAPE website.

Information collected may include:

- pages visited;
- navigation paths;
- time spent on pages;
- referring websites;
- approximate geographic location;
- browser type;
- device type;
- website errors; and
- performance information.

We use this information to evaluate and improve website usability, reliability, content, and performance.

Where required by applicable law, analytics technologies will not be activated until appropriate consent has been obtained.

Marketing and Advertising Cookies

If HummingBird uses marketing or advertising technologies, such technologies may help us:

- understand responses to marketing campaigns;
- measure advertising effectiveness;
- attribute website visits;
- understand engagement with marketing content; and
- provide or measure relevant advertising where permitted.

Where required by applicable law, these technologies will not be activated until appropriate consent has been obtained.

3. Similar Technologies

In addition to traditional cookies, we may use technologies including:

- browser local storage;
- session storage;
- pixels;
- web beacons;
- tags;
- scripts;
- device or browser identifiers; and
- similar technologies.

References to "cookies" in this policy generally include these technologies where appropriate.

4. Third-Party Services

The PACT ProSCAPE website may use third-party providers for functions such as:

- website hosting;
- content delivery;
- security;
- analytics;
- embedded media;
- customer relationship management;
- demonstration scheduling;
- communications;
- marketing; and
- website performance monitoring.

Some third-party services may place or access cookies or similar technologies when their services are used.

Third-party handling of information may also be governed by their own privacy and cookie policies.

5. Your Cookie Choices

Where required by applicable law, the website will provide controls allowing you to:

- accept non-essential cookies;
- reject non-essential cookies; or
- select particular categories of non-essential cookies.

You may revisit your selections through the Cookie Preferences link displayed on the website.

Withdrawing consent does not affect processing that occurred lawfully before consent was withdrawn.

Strictly necessary cookies may remain active because they are required to operate requested website functions.

6. Browser Controls

Most web browsers allow you to review, delete, restrict, or block cookies through browser settings.

Blocking cookies may impair website functionality. Certain features may not operate correctly if required cookies or local-storage functions are disabled.

7. Global Privacy Control and Other Preference Signals

Where required by applicable law, HummingBird will process legally recognized browser-based opt-out preference signals, including Global Privacy Control, in accordance with applicable requirements.

8. Current Cookie Inventory

The exact cookies and similar technologies deployed on the PACT ProSCAPE website may change as the website evolves.

Where appropriate, our cookie-management interface will identify currently deployed technologies and may provide information including:

- cookie or technology name;
- provider;
- purpose;
- category; and
- expiration or duration.

General categories:

Strictly Necessary - Security, website operation, session management, consent preferences. Generally no consent where legally exempt.

Functional - Enhanced functionality and remembered preferences. Consent where required.

Analytics - Usage measurement and performance analysis. Consent where required.

Marketing - Campaign measurement, attribution, advertising. Consent where required.

9. Changes to This Cookie Policy

We may modify this Cookie Policy as our website, service providers, technologies, or applicable legal requirements change.

The Last Updated date identifies the latest revision.
